DEPARTURE: Edmonton 8:45 a.m.,
Sherwood Park 9:15 a.m.

As you head east along the Yellowhead Highway, imagine what it was like settling the prairies over 100 years ago. Arrive at the UKRAINIAN CULTURAL HERITAGE VILLAGE, an open-air museum resembling early settlements of the area. History will be brought to life as you interact with interpreters in costume and walk among the historic buildings. Hear stories of early settlers, participate in activities and demonstrations, and taste an included authentic UKRAINIAN LUNCH provided by the Friends of the Ukrainian Village Society.

THERE IS PLENTY OF STORAGE SPACE UNDER YOUR MOTORCOACH FOR THOSE EXTRA PURCHASES! YOU ARE WELCOME TO BRING A SMALL COOLER BAG. BE SURE TO WEAR YOUR WALKING SHOES.

Continue east to the town of Mundare to visit the BASILIAN FATHERS MUSEUM, which was established by Order of St. Basil the Great in 1957. Discover the nickname of the 12.8 metre (42 feet) tall statue of the WORLD’S LARGEST SAUSAGE at a fun photo stop. Your tour concludes with time to shop at the nearby Stawnichy’s Mundare Sausage store. On the way home, reflect on your enriching day with new-found friends, returning to Edmonton at approximately 5:00 p.m.
