Important Tour Information:

Book Now rates valid until Apr 19, 2027, valid on air inclusive packages only.

The overall activity level of this tour is a level 3. This means you're an on-the-go traveller. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days with early mornings or late nights balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not a fit for travellers who require mobility assistance devices.

Travel with an average of 37 people (maximum of 44).

Capri: Ferry crossing lasts approximately 30-50 minutes each way and is weather-dependent; transfers use small minibuses with limited seating, which may require standing, and include boarding boats via moving gangplanks and waiting in lines of up to 30 minutes.

Pompeii: Entirely pedestrianized site accessed via a steep, uphill Roman road; expect long walking distances over large, uneven, and potentially slippery cobblestones with no vehicle access and no mobility accommodations available.

Florence: Walking tour lasts approximately 3 hours and includes only one restroom break; seating is unavailable. Expect crowded cobblestone streets and narrow sidewalks, with a minimum walking distance of 1.4 miles (2.3 km), and an additional 1.1 miles (1.7 km) back to the hotel.

Venice: Not accessible to vehicles and requires navigating crowds, narrow streets, and bridges with steps; sightseeing includes three motorboat rides (20-30 minutes each) and a 90-minute walking tour covering about 1.2 miles (1.9 km) and about 100 steps.

General Walking Conditions: throughout all destinations, expect extensive walking and prolonged standing on cobblestones, uneven and often narrow sidewalks, and occasional unpaved terrain with loose gravel. Crowds are common, and seating is limited or unavailable.

Rome & Colosseum: Requires standing and walking for approximately 4 hours with a lunch break; seating is unavailable, and the minimum walking distance is 2.2 miles (3.6 km), including approximately 200 steps.

The included activities are not suitable for travellers using motorized scooters, wheelchairs, walkers, or Zimmer-frames.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at the time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

This comprehensive tour features multiple long bus transfers exceeding 3 hours. In particular, the transfer from Rome to Sorrento requires 4+ hours of driving. The full-day transfer from Sorrento to Florence entails 7+ hours of driving, and the transfers from Florence to Venice and from Venice to Stresa both exceed 5 hours of driving.

On the day you transfer to Florence, you can expect to arrive at the hotel around 4:30 p.m. The following day, you can expect your included tour of Florence to conclude by 1:00 p.m.

In smaller towns and villages, shops and businesses are usually closed on Sundays. In larger cities, many remain open, though they may close for national or religious holidays.

In the event of adverse weather conditions, the dinner at Pescatori Island may be held at your hotel instead.

*Isola Bella and the Borromeo Palace: Typically open from approximately March 15 to October 31; for travel from November 1 to March 14, sightseeing includes a scenic cruise of the Borromeo Islands and a visit to the village of Pallanza. Guests visiting between March 15 and April 15 should note that the Borromeo Palace may be closed midweek.

*Capri boat trip: In the event of inclement weather, the boat trip or scenic cruise around the Isle of Capri may not operate; sightseeing will instead include a visit to the village of Anacapri.

*The Colosseum dates and times are all subject to change based on availability of reservations.

Days of features are interchangeable.

Vatican Museums schedule: Due to Vatican events, the day or time of your visit may change; on some departures (including Wednesdays), the order of included and optional touring days may be reversed. The Vatican Museums are closed most Sundays and all Catholic holidays, and there is no air conditioning inside.

Florence museums: Most museums, including the Academy Gallery and the Uffizi Galleries, are closed on Mondays and require advance reservations; to reduce waiting times, online ticket reservations are recommended during free time.

Vatican Museums & St. Peter's Basilica (optional tour): Tour lasts approximately 5 hours and includes only one 20-minute break; seating and air conditioning are unavailable, and the minimum walking distance of 2.6 miles (4.2 km), including 120 steps down and 30 steps up.

If booking tickets for one of the Florence museums, allow yourself 30 minutes travel time from your hotel and/or the end point of your walking tour.
